VOLUME 4 ISSUE 8

NOVEMBER 1990

From Francis:

Dear Friends,

This past July we had the wonderful opportunity to meet several of the so-called "Kansas City prophets" that many of you have heard or read about (e.g. in Charisma). We were at a conference in London directed by John Wimber, who introduced us to Bob Jones and John Paul Jackson who spent half an hour prophesying in our regard. Naturally, as with anything new there is controversy and a need for testing, but we want to share with you the heart of what they said. We were personally impressed with their accuracy with those things we could check on, since they did not know us personally, nor did they know we would be attending that meeting.

Excerpts from prophecies given by Bob Jones and John Paul Jackson for Francis and Judith MacNutt on July 12, 1990 at Holy Trinity Brompton Anglican Church, London, England. (John Wimber was also present.)

Bob Jones (for Francis): You've been stuck with thorns. Thorns always have poison in them and, if that poison stays in you, you get bitter. He has set you down to get the poison out. The water pipe of the Spirit has been kinked. It has been unkinked now and the main flow is on--like a birth, a new beginning.

The Lord will begin to lay it on people's hearts to intercede for you so that souls can come forth for the kingdom.(1) This has been prepared for you so that a river of compassion can come forth; He will anoint the teaching and the love and the pastoral gift in you for power evangelism. That's the main thing now. In times past you were used as an evangelist but now is the time for new life. The Lord is releasing new authority in your life.

(1) I think that this has already started with Joy Lamb and our intercessors.

New authority--power evangelism-- with the gift of government is growing in you. You move strongly in the word of knowledge but you are not a prophet.(2) That word of knowledge comes for people when they have a real need, because of the compassion in you.

You have been a teacher. You also have a pastor's heart and basic to that is compassion.(3) But you are so compassionate that you really wouldn't make that good a pastor! Compassion is there but being an evangelist is the calling. I mean you are too compassionate; sometimes you need to spank people.

Jones: There's a government forming now in the Church and you will be part of it; things that you never thought would change are going to change.

John Paul Jackson (for Judith): I've been raised a Pentecostal, and I seem to remember browsing through a bookstore and seeing books that Francis had written but the interesting thing is that I saw the pen of a writer in your hand (to Judith); it's subject may have to do with revelatory matters, since God has given you a strong revelatory gift-- a spirit of prophecy rests on you. This may be the theme of your book: it seemed as if it had something to do with Phillip's daughters (Acts 8)--with prophesying: it had to do with dreams and visions and angels.

Judith: I've been sent a contract to do a book on angels.

Jackson: It's really going to be a good one. The Lord is really going to give you some insights.

It's going to be a great river of information--more than just a good seller (that's not important anyway.). It's going to contain information that will be widely spread because God's creating a hunger for it; because of people's hunger, you are in the Lord's timing with this book. That's why I saw you with a pen writing; and I've seen His name on the books.

(for Francis and Judith): Then I saw another interesting thing-- in S. America-- in Brazil or Chile (4) --I saw some coals that were dark, meaning that there wasn't a lot of heat in those coals. Then I saw the wind of the Lord come to those coals and they came on fire again; they blazed. Then I saw the fire leap from there to S. Africa. The same thing: dead coals; the wind blew, the fire leapt and blazed again-- only greater than before (5)

Then I saw an interesting thing because I didn't see any coals in it. I felt it was because you didn't have great power there before.(6) I saw you in China and Russia and Eastern Bloc countries allied with Russia. The Lord spoke to me and said, "I am giving this man greater power than he has ever seen before, because I am going to introduce him to another level of my Spirit that he has never walked in before."

I think this ties in with what Bob Jones was saying about power evangelism-- the miraculous. There will even be occasions when the Lord will grant you that the dead will be raised for his purposes. Because he wants to use you to provoke jealousy in the denomination you belong to. He is going to use you to stir men's hearts to the quick again.

Then I saw men and your name was on a list, and they just crossed you off-- along with some others on the list-- but your name will never be crossed off the list again.

(To Francis and Judith) This deeper level of the Spirit is going to be with you. The book on angels is going to introduce you to a realm of angelic intervention. When that happens greater power exists and I have great faith when I see angels. It stirs my faith and I have an instant quantum leap of faith. I believe that you are going to have similar experiences, both of you. You will have times of discouragement but God is going to use this angelic dimension to greatly encourage you in a way that you could never have stirred up within yourselves. This book is definitely ordained of the Lord.

Bob Jones (to Judith): There's a work that's to be done in you now; it's time to go to work.

Depression is your worst enemy; your gifting is real but you are not stepping out strongly in it because depression comes. Let that wound from the past --what you believe are failures --be totally healed. You are going to be in the middle of this power

2) This is certainly true in the area of seeing visions, etc. But friends would say that there is prophetic dimension to our preaching.

(3) In evaluating our gifts Bob Jones is using the five-fold division of Eph. 4:11 where Paul says that some are called to be 1) apostles, 2) prophets, 3) evangelists, 4) pastors, and 5) teachers.

(4) I have never been to Brazil but I did visit Chile, Peru and Bolivia several times in the early 70's. Our team at that time also visited a number of other Latin American countries, and had a lasting impact.

(5) I was one of a number of speakers at the first large ecumenical, multi-racial, charismatic conference in S. Africa in Johannesburg in the mid-80's. (I would imagine that my influence in S. Africa at that point was relatively minor.)

(6) That's true: I have never been in China (except for a stop-over in Hong Kong) nor in Russia. (I have preached in Taiwan and took part in a small seminar for doctors in Poland.).

evangelism. You've got this compassion, too, just like him; you both really flow in that but persecution shut it off in you.

Feel the wind come? Now, these winds are angels. There's been an angel on both sides of you, ever since I laid hands on you.

You have a real gift of revelation (prophecy). Your husband is weak in this, so that you can stand by his side so he doesn't get into pride. If he had it all he might get proud, but he has to go to you and that will keep him humble for life. That's why He's put you together; you complement one another beautifully. What you don't have he does and what he doesn't have, you do.

Here comes the wind again. You are just a normal Christian who sees angels, feels their presence and lets them speak to you. The clearer you get a word, the more accountable you are, and the more you are going to be attacked, to hinder you from accomplishing what God has told you to do.

I see revelation and the word of knowledge in you, and the guidance of the angel in both of you, ready to release both of you. Feel the wind on that?

There are miracle-working angels, and you have traveled with them. You've traveled with the angel that has authority-- I've seen authority in you. (I've seen times when a healing angel comes and every person I've prayed for got healed.) We need permission to use His power. We've got that power in us but we can't use it without his permission. You two are being prepared and emptied out.

Be willing to take a chance on his grace. I mean a prophet starts as a baby prophet and will really mess up at times. If he keeps messing up he grows; if he stops messing, he dies. (Here Bob Jones shared about times in his life where he made mistakes and the Lord showed him that he was like a baby in diapers, but that the Lord gives us an insurance policy that covers all accidents.)

I see that wonderful things are going to happen in St. Augustine (Florida); something is going to be birthed there in August.

I see the hammer of God falling on this nation after Oct. 1. We won't escape those earthquakes anymore. We won't escape economic failure anymore either. The Scripture He gave me is Amos 6:1, "Woe to you who are at ease in Zion." He told me, "Pride is believing that you've got God figured out. You've got him so figured out that you know He's for you and He's not for that other man. That's pride."

Jackson: Or you know how He's going to work and you try to make Him work that way. Then He decides not to do that.

Jones The one thing he has told me is that He is looking for brokenness. We are to be broken vessels. That's what's happening in both of you -- a brokenness towards Christ in your heart. The heart is like a container; the wineskin of the heart, the container, must be broken in order to let Christ out.

Well, there it is. What do you think? The part about being recognized again by those who had written us off seems to be coming true, especially this month, just three months after the London meeting.

love, Francis + Judith

OVERCOME BY THE SPIRIT

In the 1960s and early 1970s when Francis MacNutt first witnessed being "slain in the Spirit," he didn't know what to think. His curiosity led him to conduct extensive research, pouring over the Scriptures and studying the events of Church history. Christians seeking a deeper understanding of this phenomenon will find biblically informed wisdom, sensitivity and practical advice that will help them develop greater intimacy with God.

FOOTNOTES: The recent (9/90) Newsletter concerning demonic attacks, especially on the clergy, has drawn a number of letters in response - a few questioning if it is really so, while many confirmed it, such as one friend who writes:

"I and, through me, my husband have been under attack for years; as you say, it's particularly bad before giving a talk or doing some special work for the Lord. One morning I felt it strongly and prayed as I left the house. While on the hiway a huge chunk of asphalt came hurtling through the air, hitting the windshield right in front of me, smashing it to pieces. Yet, there was no vehicle near me - nor an overpass. I felt Satan's force, but God's protection, too."

In that same Newsletter I credited the prayer for protection to the wrong person; actually, the one who developed it through much experience was Mrs. Betty Brennan.

PRAISE REPORTS

On my prayer request form I requested that I receive the Baptism of the Holy Spirit. Praise the Lord I received it yesterday. Thanks for all of you who were praying for me!

It looks as if P.C. has been healed of cancer. First doctors report used that "no no word" terminal. After prayer she is healed.

S. from Alabama had very bad word from doctors about recurrence of breast cancer. After coming to healing service on Tuesday night (all the way from Alabama) and being on intercessors list-doctors can't find any signs of cancer.

A. is a first year teacher-her school class and students were a "bad scene"-she was put in special needs category (p. 5 & 12 of Oct.) for classroom blessings and renewed joy. "Within two weeks she was transferred out of one school into another-says her school classroom students are wonderful. She can't believe what's happened to her. For those of you who prayed for pages 5 & 12 of October--she says Thank you!!

Francis received this 1880's New York Times story from his sister and thought you might find it interesting.

The Reason Why She Didn't Become a Baptist.

It is very easy to say, now that the affair is over, that Miss Wilson ought to have left her cork leg at home. In that case, however, she would have been compelled either to limp to the water on crutches, or to be carried thither by self-sacrificing deacons. Moreover her appearance in public without her customary leg would have excited a great deal of remark, which would not only have shocked her sensitive feelings but would have detracted from the solemnity of the scene. When, in addition to these facts, we remember that she was a woman residing in a country town, to which champagne baskets rarely penetrated, and was hence presumably ignorant of the scientific fact that cork is light and buoyant, her neglect to remove her cork leg prior to the baptism, seems entirely excusable. So long as the water was only two feet deep. Miss Wilson, who weighed fully 200 pounds, managed to wade toward the minister, but so soon as the latter took her hand and led her into deeper water the cork leg asserted its buoyancy, and Miss Wilson was suddenly reversed. The minister, with much difficulty, placed her on her feet again, and rather surlily requesting her not to do that again, began to make a brief and formal address. Before he had spoken ten words, Miss Wilson with a wild shriek fell backward, and her cork leg shot swiftly upon the surface. Perhaps this is the point where a veil should be dropped. To finish the narrative in as few words as possible, it may be said, that after half a dozen futile efforts, the attempt to baptize Miss Wilson was abandoned. With all his skill and strength the minister could not counteract the effect of the cork leg, and could not keep the convert right side up long enough to baptize her. She bore it with patience until the minister called for a sixty-four pound weight, with a view to ballasting her, when she indignantly scrambled ashore, hastened home and subsequently joined the Presbyterians.

INTERCESSORS REPORT

by Joy Lamb

The following praise report was a real joy for me, for it showed me the power that praying the Scriptures releases.

When Marcia wrote in June "Please pray for compulsive overeating"...We put her under the inner healing category and prayed the following scriptures for her.

Thank you Lord that you have seen Marcia's ways and that you have healed her and brought her into everlasting truth. In the name of Jesus.

Thank you Lord that Marcia will forgive men their transgressions, so that her Heavenly Father will forgive her. In the name of Jesus.(the Key to all healing-to forgive others and yourself.)

Thank you Lord for strengthening Marcia with Power through your Holy Spirit in her inner man. In the name of Jesus Christ.

Thank you Lord that all things become visible when exposed by the light, for everything that becomes visible is light. For this reason it says "awake sleeper and arise from the dead and Christ will shine on you."

We also prayed the Deliverance Prayer over Marcia.

Marcia writes...

"I have requested prayer for compulsive overeating habits. Since I started receiving your newsletter earlier this year, I feel a report is in order.

I have not lost any weight but have dealt with the feeling that I need to go to a weight loss group to do this. I have done that before, and even though I lost weight, I have never been able to keep it off. I feel that when I go to a weight loss group I am giving them the responsibility that I need to accept for myself. Additionally I need to do this for myself and not for another individual.

I am at the point where the fact of weight (except for my health suffering) is not the big problem. The problem is that my compulsiveness controls a major portion of my life and thoughts. I'm getting over the feeling that I'm a terrible person because of the compulsiveness, and have decided that some of the problem may be resentment and unforgiveness. That's what I am exploring now."

Thank you Marcia.

Thank you for your praise reports...and support!!

Love and Blessings to all of you!!

Joy Lamb
