

Should We Be Shocked?

Over and over it happens. Christian leaders with a great healing ministry are exposed as having very human weaknesses. They fall.

Should that tempt us to be disillusioned? Would God gift such a sinner with a great ministry? Were the healings real in the first place?

It should reassure you to know that these problems — and their answers — go back to the very earliest days of Christianity. Jesus himself said that there are followers who will call upon his name and cast out evil spirits but ultimately are lost. How can this be?

The answer is simple. Traditionally, there are two kinds of spiritual gifts or charisms. One entire group of gifts are given to us, not necessarily for our own spiritual growth, but in order to help others. These are the gifts listed by Paul in 1 Corinthians 11, which includes the gift of healing. Our dear friend, Tommy Tyson, used to say that God even gave Balaam's ass the ability to prophesy, on at least one occasion!

Jesus was not surprised that some of his gifted followers were also failures in their personal lives:

"Not everyone who says to me, 'Lord, Lord,' will enter the kingdom of heaven, but only he who does the will of my Father who is in heaven. Many will say to me on that day, 'Lord, Lord, did we not prophesy in your name, and in your name drive out demons and perform many miracles?' Then I will tell them plainly, 'I never knew you. Away from me, you evildoers!'" (Mt. 7:21-23)

On the other hand, there is a second category of gifts which only indirectly help others, but are given to help us personally grow as Christians and to become holy.<sup>1</sup> These

by Dr. Francis MacNutt are the "fruits of the Holy Spirit," some of which are listed by Paul in Galatians (5:22-23a).

But the fruit of the Spirit is love, joy, peace, patience, kindness, goodness, faithfulness, gentleness and self-control.

The ideal, of course, is that we become blessed by both — the gifting we need for our own interior growth, but we also hope to be used by Jesus to help others. It's not an either/or, but a both/and situation. It's more important, of course, that we ourselves become loving, joyful, long-suffering — that we demonstrate all the fruits of the Spirit. This growth in Christian character takes time, as well as God's help. In fact, without Christian character we may be tempted to use the other spiritual gifts for our own selfish purposes. Jesus specifically tells his disciples, when he commissions them to heal, that they shouldn't try to make money off their healing gift: "You received without charge, give without charge. Provide yourselves with no gold or silver ..." (Mt. 10:9). He balances this by saying that the laborer is worthy of his hire (Mt. 10:10b), but he clearly recognizes the dangers and temptations the healer may face. The desire to achieve fame as well as fortune may also allure anyone who has a great gift of healing.

And yet, by God's mercy, many are healed even though the minister of healing may display moral gaps in his/her personality. This should not surprise or shock us — although we are saddened, because these failures cause the healing ministry to be criticized by skeptics. In my library I have a book totally given over to showing that Christian healers are nothing but frauds. In the 13th century Thomas Aquinas directly asks the question, “Can evil people work miracles?” and his answer is “Yes.”<sup>2</sup>

So we can hope that the Lord gifts us with his power to help others — even to ask for more of the gift of healing — but we need to be ready to face the temptations that come along with it. Are you up to it? In any case, you can’t go wrong in praying for the gifts of love and humility, the fruits of the Spirit.

*“Do not rejoice that the spirits submit to you;
rejoice rather that your names are written in heaven” (Lk. 10:20).*

<sup>1</sup> Traditionally, in scholastic theology, the first class of gifts were called “gratiae gratis datae” — these were the gifts that flow through us to others — and “gratiae gratis dantis” — gifts to help us become more like Christ.

Framework for Developing a Healing Ministry

by Elizabeth Coleman

Associate Director of Prayer Ministry

Many people have contacted Christian Healing Ministries (CHM) through the years for practical suggestions in developing a healing ministry within their local church. For that reason, we thought we would provide a general framework in order to help you get started. CHM uses the following guideline in a similar way and has found it to be very effective:

1. Have the Pastor's blessing and approval: It is very important to have the Pastor's spiritual blessing and support before beginning a new ministry. It is also helpful for the Pastor to preach and teach about healing in order to affirm the healing ministry.
2. Coordinate an Intercessory Prayer Group: Pray and enlist the support of at least four intercessors that will commit to pray weekly for the healing ministry, the healing ministry leaders and all of the prayer ministers.
3. Appoint a Director: The director is usually selected by the Pastor and provides the leadership and general supervision of the healing ministry. He/she is under the authority of the Pastor and establishes the Prayer Ministry Training Program.
4. Appoint a Training Assistant: The Training Assistant works closely with the Director and provides in-depth training with all new prayer ministers on a regular basis.
5. Teach and Train Prayer Ministers: The Director and Training Assistant, using Christian Healing Ministries School of Healing Prayer Levels I, II and III, provide a training program for new prayer ministers. CHM also recommends that each prayer minister read the following books: Healing, by Francis MacNutt; Deliverance from Evil Spirits, by Francis MacNutt; Praying for Your Unborn Child, by Judith and Francis MacNutt; and The Holy Spirit and You, by Dennis Bennett.
6. Educate the Church: It is important for the church to understand the healing power of God available to them through prayer. The Prayer That Heals, by Francis MacNutt is a wonderful introduction to the healing ministry of Jesus. This book encourages people to begin to pray and receive prayer from family and friends, and is an excellent resource for small groups or Sunday school classes.

Time to Renew Your Subscription to The Healing Line

In an effort to be good stewards of our financial resources, CHM constantly updates our mailing list. We remove from our list anyone who has not had some form of communication with the ministry within the last two years. We keep names of those who have ordered from the bookstore, sent a contribution or simply asked to remain on the list.

If you would like to remain on the mailing list and continue receiving The Healing Line, please let us know. If you or someone you know has been removed from the mailing list and would like to continue receiving our newsletter, let us know that, too. If you are able, please send a $20.00 contribution to help cover production and mailing. If you are unable to send a contribution, simply return the form, and we will keep you on the mailing list through our scholarship program. Simply send the completed form in the enclosed envelope. If you wish not to continue receiving the newsletter, please indicate that on the form and mail it to us. If you are a new addition to our mailing list, please allow us to give you the newsletter free for one year.

We appreciate your help in ensuring that we remain good stewards. God bless you!

International Speakers & Authors

26-27 September 2003

Times Union Performing Arts
Center's Terry Theater
Jacksonville, Florida

This conference is intended to help better understand and deepen marriage relationships. We trust that everyone who attends will be blessed in very real, practical ways, such as how to understand the differences between men and women, being reconciled, being freed from generational sin and deepening intimacy between husbands and wives.

FEATURED SPEAKERS

Francis MacNutt, Ph.D.

Together, Francis & Judith founded Christian Healing Ministries, Inc. Francis wrote Healing, which has become a classic and sold nearly a million copies in the United States alone. He also has written Power to Heal, The Prayer That Heals, Overcome by The Spirit and Deliverance from Evil Spirits. He and Judith coauthored Praying For Your Unborn Child. Francis continues speaking, teaching and writing, and he and Judith serve as founding directors of Christian Healing Ministries.

Judith MacNutt, M.A.

A native of Kentucky, Judith worked as a missionary for three years. Moving to Clearwater, Florida in 1977 she founded a counseling service that gave her the opportunity to combine her work as a psychotherapist together with praying for the healing of her clients. In 1980, Judith and Francis married, and they have traveled widely, speaking and ministering.

John Sandford, M.A. and Paula Sandford

Co-founders of Elijah House, an international Ministry established in 1974 in response to the Lord's calling in Malachi 4:5,6 and Matthew 17:11.

John and Paula travel extensively to conduct seminars on marriage and the family, inner healing and transformation, prayer, the gifts of the Spirit, burden bearing and intercession, small group ministry and leadership training, and other related subjects in Protestant and Roman Catholic sponsored gatherings all over the world. They are active in the renewal and reconciliation movements.

John and Paula have made numerous radio and television appearances in the U.S., Canada and New Zealand. Several of their books are required reading in a number of colleges throughout the U.S.

WORKSHOPS

3:00-3:50 Why God Made Us Sexual Beings

The Rev. Dr. David Kyle Foster—Mastering Life Ministries

Have you ever wondered why God created such a complicated thing as sex? This workshop will uncover the glory of His plan in making us male and female and clarify why that sexuality is only to be expressed in faithful, heterosexual, and covenantal marriage relationships.

4:00-5:00 Eros Defiled

The Rev. Dr. David Kyle Foster—Mastering Life Ministries

This workshop will explain why so many people misuse the gift of human sexuality and how God can remedy the mess they have created. No matter what the problem, God has made a way of escape.

3:00-3:50 & 4:00-5:00 Financial Advice for Married Couples:

Yours, Mine and Ours!

Marshall Gunn, CPA/PFS, CFP—Gunn & Co. (Financial)

Couples list money as the number one cause of disagreement! Understand methods to get control of your tithing, saving and spending. Learn practical tips to take charge of your financial life while bringing harmony to your relationship. Find out how family finances for education, investing and saving for retirement really can be humorous.

3:00-3:50 & 4:00-5:00 The Dialogue Guide: Communication Skills for Healthy Complaining

Richard Marks, Ph.D.—First Baptist Youth & Family Life

This lively, humorous, and important session teaches couples about four destructive styles of communication and teaches them skills for making healthy criticisms that lead to intimacy and understanding, rather than misunderstanding and pain.

3:00-3:50 & 4:00-5:00 Surviving, Striving, and Thriving, as Parents of Teenagers

Pam Mullarkey, Ph.D.—S.O.S. (Youth)

This workshop will help parents, grandparents, aunts and uncles to not only know the youth culture's challenges, but what works with teens to help them avoid sex, drugs alcohol, suicide, and other risk behaviors.

Praise Reports

❖ Thank you, ... for your beautiful thoughts about when to pray for a loved one's death. For the past ten years I have worked as a hospital chaplain and I have finally let God decide when the time is right. Even when the family decides to remove all life supports, I tell them that God still has the last word on it.

❖ I appreciated your article in the Jan/Feb, 2003 issue entitled, "When to Pray for a Peaceful Death." It was wonderful and answered many questions on my mind.

❖ I have read the "Praise Reports from Prisons," and they impressed me immensely. Those individuals have turned to God, their Creator, a God who loves them very much. They ought all to be reassured that there is someone they can turn to, no matter what their circumstances are, and at any time.

I wish I could say to each one of them, "Never give up on the Lord, but pursue him as if your whole life depended upon it; then you will begin to experience his Holy Spirit and the abundant life that goes with it."

❖ Our son whom you prayed for when he was in prison last February, experienced a spiritual healing. The Lord even spoke to him. He has had a 180 degree turn around in his faith.

❖ CHM has been a refuge for me; a place of peace where I feel the presence of our Lord. As an Oncology Registered Nurse, I tell my patients about CHM and urge them to go there. You are definitely in touch with the greatest Physician—Jehovah Raphe.

❖ Many years ago at St. Leo's, Francis touched C. and he was freed from stuttering.

❖ SHP I—a beautiful, edifying, and Holy Spirit-filled experience.

❖ Although my troubles are not solved, I was able to connect through your web site with our precious Lord in a wonderful way. Thank you so much.

❖ I want to tell you about the blessing I received when I attended the day for generational healing in June. Nothing happened in the morning session. I still ran into that wall I couldn't get through. I was feeling tearful, sad, defeated, and hopeless—feelings that left me primed for failure.

Then, that afternoon, during the period of soaking prayer, the wall change into an image of beauty and happiness. I saw a garden filled with many beautiful flowers and happy, laughing people. Originally, I had thought that, to get rid of that wall, I would have to understand everything that had happened, face it, and then forgive—that I could only find peace in knowing and understanding. Maybe that was the devil's lie. Anyway, those old feelings are gone and mourning has turned into joy.

One of the sweetest parts of this experience is the tender connection I now have with my mother. (She died in '95.) I was the one she depended on for help but I never felt that she loved me. I do now. In the prayer I could see her smiling at me with love and tenderness. It was so healing.

I still have all the troubling relationships I had before, but now I can interact with these individuals without my old fear of their hurting me. I am free! May they be blessed in the same way!

I had planned to come back for the three-day prayer ministry another time. However, after the one day of prayer, when I began filling out the forms, I found I no longer related to these people and painful experiences as I did before. That they are simply no longer part of my history. I feel I would be dredging up something God has buried, so I think it should remain buried.

Thank you so much for your prayer ministry. Now, instead of looking for someone to affirm me, and make me feel loved, I am asking that Jesus will love others through me. What a Savior!

❖ Praise God! Bonnie, whom I sent down to your ministry, is healed of cancer!

❖ I was down for the prayer ministry in May and my heart is lighter from the prayer I received for healing from childhood wounds.

❖ I'd like to share two journal entries with you as my testimony. I know you can always use encouragement. Thank you for your hard work in prayer for myself and others.

January 16, 2003

I have been relaxing for two days and I feel so good. It's been three days since the Day of Healing Prayer at CHM. I find myself to be much less anxious and I'm worrying very little about anything. The biggest improvement is in feeling at ease with people in general, but especially with men. (I suffered sexual abuse as a child.) I was on a fishing boat yesterday, and I was the only female aboard and yet I was totally relaxed around them — even though I got seasick.

Regarding men—in the past few days, I have been able to see that they can have a softer, more protective side. Never before have I been aware that they desire to be chivalrous, if I will just give them a chance. What I perceived as harshness and meanness in the past simply came from a difference in the sexes. I think I will feel less anxious around men from now on.

January 20, 2003

At the Day of Healing Prayer, I cried a lot. I realized that my self-worth cannot be based on someone else's behavior. Their behavior is their own problem. Being hurt in any relationship is inevitable, because we are all human. I can't control another's behavior. When I am thin-skinned and too scared of getting hurt, relationships won't last long. The key is to value myself, despite the other person's actions.

(These praise reports may have been edited for readability.)

Calling all Alumni...For some time there has been discussion concerning a networking system for all those who have attended any of the CHM's School of Healing Prayer levels. Well, the time has come. Unfortunately we have no way of knowing who has attended a school prior to the year 2000. Sooooo... if you have, at any time, attended a School of Healing Prayer (even since 2000) and would be interested in participating in an alumni program please contact us at alumni@christianhealingmin.org or call us at (904) 765-3332.

Healing Post-Abortion Trauma

by Susan Stanford-Rue, Ph.D.

Will I Cry Tomorrow? is Dr. Susan Stanford-Rue's poignant story of her own abortion experience. Writing knowingly of God's unconditional, forgiving love, which led to her remarkable, long-term healing, Dr. Stanford-Rue offers hope to women who have had abortions. She helps counselors understand the pain of others—explaining that women, as well as, infants are the victims of abortion.

Why Not Waste Time With God?

by The Rev. Michael Evans

I strongly recommend reading Mike Evans' new book. I, for one, found I needed to read it. He is very honest about his own failings, but yet offers a hopeful and practical solution to the problem so many of us have: spending too much time working for God and so little time just "wasted," listening in his presence. Mike writes movingly about how we can change our lives to grow in intimacy with our God.

Healing Death's Wounds

by The Rev. Dr. Russ Parker
& Michael Mitton

This book reveals what the Bible says about death and the departed. It teaches us how we can express our love for those who have died. It gives an honest and fresh approach to the whole subject of what is the proper relationship between the living and the departed and demonstrates how the love and power of Jesus brings healing to those who have been stung by death's wounds.

Jesus & Addiction

by The Rev. Don Williams

Based on up-to-date addiction theory, Williams makes the case that only Jesus, as revealed in the Bible, can lead us out of addiction. For Jesus was the one fully functional person, living and dying without fear, totally free, and self-giving. He was sent to us by God the Father to lead us on a journey from spiritual emptiness, the root of all addiction, to authentic Christianity.

Resting in the Heart

by The Rev. Paul A. Feider

This book describes a listening spirituality which leads its reader along the journey of inner healing in a way that is inviting and freeing. It offers simple, clear steps, along with scriptural reflections to assist people in getting free from childhood memories that stifle their adult life, especially in the areas of fear, shame, unresolved grief, and unnamed anger.

When There is No Miracle

Finding Hope in Pain and Suffering

by The Rt. Rev. Robert L. Wise

In a day when miracles are being considered almost commonplace by some and when many people suffer feelings of guilt because their prayers are not being miraculously answered, Dr. Wise has written a clear and comforting word to help any believer walk by faith through trouble or trauma.

The Compulsive Woman

by Sandra LeSourd

With insight and understanding gained from personal experience, Sandra LeSourd exposes the nightmarish existence of The Compulsive Woman. With this, she explains how women can break the bonds of food addiction, smoking, alcohol/drugs, sex, shopping, work, exercise, TV/internet and much more.

Healing Prayer

by Barbara Shlemon-Ryan, R.N.

Healing Prayer is a fascinating personal account of a registered nurse's experiences with prayers that have brought physical healing to sick and broken bodies. If you or someone you love is in need of physical healing, this book will show you how simple faith can connect with God's pressing desire to restore us to wholeness.

There is a Lad Here

by The Very Rev. David Collins

The Life and Times of David B. Collins

"... this whole story is about GRACE. I would go rolling along in life until I hit a wall. It always seemed to be that there was no way over, under, or around. But this is a story about how God makes a way where there is no way. For in seemingly impossible situations God makes a way, and His grace comes—'grace'—His sheer unmerited favor."

Homosexuality: Can It Be Healed?

by Francis MacNutt

In this new book, Dr. MacNutt explains problems from both the homosexual point of view and the traditional moral position. These positions have tended to polarize the Church as deep hurts have been given and received, but Francis explores the possibility of transforming a homosexual's sexual orientation through prayer. This is a great book for those who have been confused by the intense propaganda surrounding this subject on all sides and is recommended for anyone seeking a short study on the subject.

The Prayer That Heals

by Francis MacNutt

This book teaches people how to pray at home for healing of family members. Says Dr. MacNutt, "Praying together at home is such a beautiful experience—and so easy to learn—that the present bleak record (of broken families) could easily be changed if people were taught and 'given permission' to try. . . I hope Christian families will experience the joy of praying together."

Also available on audio cassette.

The Sword of the Spirit, the Word of God

— A Handbook for Scriptural Intercession

by Joy Lamb

This wonderful book, written by the creator of CHM's intercessory prayer program, is based upon the fact that God's inspired Word is the best way to pray and to combat evil. Through this powerful handbook, Mrs. Lamb teaches Christians how to pray Holy Scripture in specific situations, whether they are praying for their own needs or interceding on behalf of others.

Praying for Your Unborn Child

by Francis and Judith MacNutt

What might happen if expectant mothers and fathers learned to pray for their babies even before birth? Sharing their conviction that "Jesus really wants to consecrate your child, to fill him with love and bring him into His Father's family," the MacNutt's give examples of the wondrous difference that prayer makes. Also available on audio cassette.
